Article Name: T Shirt (Men's)

Fabric: Lycra
(90% Polyester/10%Elastic)

Technical Features:

LYCRA fiber is a man-made spandex fiber as thin and transparent as a spider web that offers superior stretch and recovery properties. It can be stretched four to seven times its initial length before springing back to its original length once tension is released. Never used alone, but always blended with other fibers, it adds unique stretch and recovery properties to fabrics. Garments blended with LYCRA fiber offer comfort, fit, shape retention, and freedom of movement.
